How does God want His children to handle bullies, stress, anger, frustration, or jealousy? The world tells us to strike back with more of the same, but God asks much more of us. He asks us to follow the example of His Son, Jesus Christ, and to live a Spirit filled life whereby we exhibit the fruits of His Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, and self-control spoken about in Galatians 5:22-25. Join Ernie Bunny, his family, and friends as they learn to make Godly choices in their everyday life. Here are six stories complete with discussion questions and activities that parents and teachers can use to help children learn to apply scripture to the challenges of everyday life. Teach our children how to handle life Gods way. Melita Hildahl is currently an elementary teacher in Montevideo, Minnesota where she has taught for 20 years. She and her husband David, have two children, Jenna and Spencer. Melita received her undergraduate teaching degree from Moorhead State University in Moorhead, MN and Masters in Educational Leadership from Southwest State University in Marshall, MN. These stories are a product of the journey God has brought her on to teach her how to walk daily in the fruits of the Spirit. Jenna Hildahl is the fourteen-year-old illustrator of her mothers stories in this book. Jennas artistic talent continues to grow as she dreams of one day being a published author and illustrator of her own stories. She also desires to animate movies one day. Her other interests include: playing guitar, composing songs, and performing in band, choir, and school musicals. Her talents are a blessing to all who know her.
